Verse Description Section

Each verse in each mission has been carefully and purposely selected. While no two people would come up with exactly the same best 100 verses, or even the best 10 verses, these verses do form an excellent framework to help develop people's belief systems. Each mission is briefly explained below to help you understand some of the reasoning and purpose behind each mission. Some are pretty self explanatory, while some may need a little bit more of a description. You may find that some verses may serve two or more purposes, and so a verse that contains two important truths may have been included over a verse that is more famous, but only contains one important truth. You may also notice that some themes, like forgiveness, are woven throughout the program to help to continue reinforcing important concepts.

Mission One Description — Gospel

The mission 1 verses provide a great explanation of how a person can know for sure that they have eternal life by placing their faith in Christ. If someone only learned ten verses in his whole life, these would be ten good verses to learn. Not only will they equip someone to share his faith, they also help give assurance in times of doubt.

You can be sure that you have eternal life (1 John 5:13)

God loves you. (John 3:16; Romans 5:8)

Man sins and falls short of God's standard. (Romans 3:23; James 2:10)

The result of sin is death (eternal separation from God) (Romans 6:23; John 3:36)

You cannot be saved by your own good deeds. (Ephesians 2:8,9)

Christ died in your place, to pay your death penalty. (Romans 5:8; John 3:16)

Salvation is a free gift. (Romans 6:23; Ephesians 2:8,9; John 3:16)

Eternal life is given to those that believe. (John 3:16; John 3:36; John 5:24)

Eternal life is guaranteed. (John 5:24; John 3:36 (HAS eternal life))

Mission Two Description — Foundations

Mission 2 covers some great “basics” to start building a person's faith on:

- Love of God (1 John 4:8)

- The sonship we have through belief (John 1:12)

- Authority of Scripture (2 Timothy 3:16)

- Value of putting His Word in our hearts (Psalm 119:11)

- The sinfulness of mankind (Isaiah 53:6)

- A promise when we face temptation (1 Corinthians 10:13)

- Our defender when we sin (1 John 2:1)

- Not saved by works (Titus 3:5a)

- Assurance of salvation (Ephesians 1:13b)

Mission Three Description – Basic Behavior

Mission 3 deals with some of the issues kids face most like obedience, sharing, lying, etc... But these verses are not just for kids, they are for adults as well, and have lessons for all of us. Many parents have also incorporated these into everyday parenting, discussing with their children verses on complaining, being kind, and forgiving. It should be noted that the “sharing” mentioned in Hebrews 13:16 is probably more closely related to sharing our financial resources than sharing our toys, but it is still applicable to sharing toys and can also be used as kids learn to give.

Mission Four Description – More Foundations and Definitions

There are a lot of commonly used Christian verses, and like mission two, mission 4 covers a lot of these.

- Each Christian has the Spirit (Romans 8:9)
- There is value in being involved in church (Hebrews 10:25)
- Faith defined (Hebrews 11:1)
- Love defined (1 John 3:16)
- Our utter sinfulness before being forgiven (Isaiah 64:6a)
- The fruit of the Spirit (Galatians 5:22,23)
- Forgiveness through belief (Acts 10:43)
- Prayer in everything (Philippians 4:6)
- Obedience as a form of worship (Romans 12:1)
- The guiding Word (Psalm 119:11)

Mission Five Description – What God Wants

If you collected a group of verses in the Bible that explain just what is the most important thing in the Christian life, you’d certainly include most of the verses from mission 5. They are the Cliff’s Notes version of what God wants.

Mission Six Description — Character

Mission 6 covers important character areas. While you may want to learn more verses related to specific areas of struggle, it’s also really nice to have an arsenal of verses covering a wider range of common character struggles.

Mission Seven Description — God

While we typically know a lot of truths about God, few people can really back many of those truths scripturally. Mission 19 will take this even a step further, but mission 7 provides some great basic truths about God. You may also recognize that many of these verses go along with the Outreach Class and fit well into helping equip people to share the gospel.

Mission Eight Description — Classics

Mission 8 is another collection of great verses that every Christian should know. While mission 7 was a little more theological, mission 8 jumps right back into more practicals of Christian living, and mixes in a few more equipping verses. Here are a couple of explanations for further thought.

Hebrews 9:27 is a great verse for explaining the fallacy of reincarnation, and also helps people understand that their decision for Christ needs to be made now, and not after death.

Philippians 4:13 is a verse commonly used in sports to say that I can do all things through Christ, like climb mountains and win races. In context, it applies to something even more amazing. Through Christ I can do anything, even be content!

Mission Nine Description – You Are Special

The verses in mission 9 focus on God's love what He thinks of us. There isn't much that is more damaging to a Christian than when they don't understand their forgiveness, and the love of their heavenly Father. The verses in this mission are selected to help us understand that God loves and treasures us. In fact, He's wild about us, and He has very special plans for our lives.

Mission Ten Description – Double Ups

Mission 10 is simply an expansion of verses that have already been learned, but where there is an important second thought of the verse that has been left out. Most of these are also classics, so it is worth learning the longer passages, as that is how most of them are commonly known.

Mission Eleven Description – Deeper: Outreach

In mission 5 we learned that Jesus commanded us to go and make disciples of all nations. The verses in mission 11 expand upon our calling to share our faith with others.

Mission Twelve Description — Emotions

Battling our emotions is one of the greatest struggles we have. It affects both our thoughts and our faith. Mission 12 helps provide some support for some of our most common emotional battles.

Mission Thirteen Description – Deeper: Word

Mission 13 and 14 cover two of the spiritual disciplines, the Word and prayer, in more depth. Mission 13 focus on the Word of God and helps reinforce its significance, usefulness, and validity.

Mission Fourteen Description – Deeper: Prayer

Prayer is one of the greatest needs of the Christian church today. Even Jesus prayed all night at times, and yet, we as humans find little time for it in our own lives. Mission 14 helps explain prayer, and the numerous promises associated with it.

Mission Fifteen Description – Grace and Forgiveness

Mission 15 covers our forgiveness and the grace that God has shown us. As it talks about in 2 Peter 1:5-9, if we lose a grasp on our forgiveness it will cripple our spiritual growth. These are some amazing verses that, if fully grasped, could really rock someone's life.

Mission Sixteen Description – The Christian Life

Mission 16 is a collection of verses that help define the Christian life at a very practical level.

Mission Seventeen Description — Beginnings

Is there anything that shakes people's belief in God more than when they start to doubt that God is their creator, and start to doubt the biblical creation account? These verses are an amazing collection of verses showing God as the loving and powerful Creator. Not only will these help in defending a biblical view of beginnings, but they also help develop an understanding of God's love and goodness toward us.

Mission Eighteen Description – The End

The Bible speaks a lot about the end of life, as well as, the end of the world. Have you ever heard comments like, "I don't believe in hell," or, "I think when we die we just cease to exist?" Mission 18 helps defend against such fallacies and form a set of truths on things like heaven and hell, the coming of the Lord, and the rapture. As 1 Peter 1:13 mentions, we want to develop a hope that is not set here on the earth, but that is set on future grace.

Mission Nineteen Description – Deeper: God II

Like mission 7, mission 19 further deepens our understanding of God. This mission also has a specific emphasis on the Holy Spirit and on Christ.

Mission Twenty Description – Spiritual Beings

Most people do not believe in spiritual beings. The danger in this is that leaves them fighting a battle which they don't know exists, and an enemy they don't believe in. Each verse in mission 20 mentions a spiritual being, what they can and cannot do, or what we should be careful of.

Mission Twenty-one Description – Prep for Teen Years

While these verses are good for everyone, they are especially applicable for the struggles many face in the teen years. Here are some thoughts on how these may relate to or be helpful in the teen years.

Luke 12:22-23 Clothes, clothes, clothes... In high school kids and college fashion can become an obsession, but Jesus says that "the body is more than clothes!"

Proverbs 19:26 Many teens steal from their parents or are disrespectful toward them. It is not to be that way with God's children.

Ephesians 6:2,3 While teenage rebellion might not be uncommon even in the church, let's not forget that honoring our parents is serious business to God. It's even in the Ten Commandments!

Ephesians 5:18 This verse saved me from a lot of trouble. I knew it was wrong to get drunk, so I really didn't see the point of drinking. (This is also a great verse on the Spirit!)

1 Samuel 15:23a Rebellion is serious business! It's as bad as witchcraft!

Acts 17:26 God determined the exact place where you should live. He picked your house, your parents, and your family!

Proverbs 11:22 Indiscretion in dress shows a deeper ugliness and lack of character.

Hebrews 12:9 Our fathers are right to discipline us, and we should respect them for it.

1 Peter 2:11 We need to abstain from those desires which are sinful, we need to see ourselves as aliens instead of trying to blend into the crowd, and we need to see that there is a battle raging for our souls.

Acts 24:16 We need to keep a clear conscience, not only with God, but also with our parents, teachers, and all people.

Mission Twenty-two Description – Manhood

What does it mean to be a man or a husband? God addresses the differences between men and women, and the special call on a man's life. These verses will help men be men, and will help young women know what to look for in a future husband.

Mission Twenty-three Description – Womanhood

The world has a skewed perception of femininity and the role of women in society. These verses will help women understand their equality and unique role in relationships. These are great marriage verses for women, and will also help men know what to value and admire in women.

Mission Twenty-four Description – Parenting

Oftentimes, the best parents are those that start learning about parenting long before they enter into it. These passages will shape the beliefs parents to be, and strengthen those that are already parenting, or even grand-parenting.

Mission Twenty-five Description – Current Issues

These verses help explain God's thoughts on many current issues facing today's society.

Jeremiah 1:5 - Numerous verses show the value of life even in the womb. It's good to memorize at least one to remember this truth.

Leviticus 18:22 – This is one of the clearest verses on homosexuality. Although it is an Old Testament passage, it should be noted that in the New Testament laws related to sexual behavior were still held as the standard for Christian behavior (Acts 15:20, 29; 21:25).

Romans 1:26 - This is such a huge issue in society, that it seemed two verses would be appropriate. This is also a New Testament example.

1 Corinthians 5:11 - The Greek word translated as “sexually immoral” is pornos and includes premarital sex as well as other sexual deviancies including adultery, bestiality, and homosexuality.
